Problem-Solution Fit Canvas:

The canvas checks that the AI FitTrack API addresses the root causes, behaviours and limitations of its target users.

1. CUSTOMER SEGMENT(S) [CS] - Gym-goers and fitness beginners who want to track progress - App developers who need a fitness-data backend	6. CUSTOMER LIMITATIONS [CL] - Limited budget for personal trainers - Little time to log data manually - Concern about sharing health data	5. AVAILABLE SOLUTIONS [AS] - Notebooks / spreadsheets: free but manual, no insights - Commercial fitness apps: polished but paid, closed and little control over data - Personal trainers: personalised but costly
2. PROBLEMS / PAINS + ITS FREQUENCY [PR] - Scattered records across tools (every workout) - Generic plans that ignore the user's goal (every plan) - Hard to see progress (weekly)	9. PROBLEM ROOT / CAUSE [RC] - No single secure place for activity data - No personalisation from logged history - Existing apps are closed systems with no developer-friendly API	7. BEHAVIOR + ITS INTENSITY [BE] - Logs irregularly and quits when it is tedious (high) - Searches online for plans and compares apps (medium) - Checks progress often when motivated (medium)
3. TRIGGERS TO ACT [TR] - New fitness goal or New Year resolution - Plateau in progress - Seeing a friend's progress	10. YOUR SOLUTION [SL] - AI FitTrack API: a secure Node.js / Express / MongoDB REST API. - Users register, log workouts, meals and water, and set goals. - An AI engine turns profile and history into personalised workout and diet plans. - Weekly and monthly reports show progress and streaks. - Role-based access and JWT keep data private; any client app can consume the API.	8. CHANNELS OF BEHAVIOR [CH] ONLINE: fitness apps, YouTube and blogs, social media groups, REST API through app / Postman OFFLINE: gym trainers, friends, notebooks and printed plans
4. EMOTIONS BEFORE / AFTER [EM] - Before: confused, unmotivated, overwhelmed - After: confident, in control, motivated
